

Catholic Education Office

Regional Director: (Hobart or Launceston based)

The Catholic Education Office is a friendly and professional organisation that supports Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of Hobart.

The position of Regional Director will be required to work closely with the Director of the Catholic Education Office to provide:

- Strategic direction, governance and leadership to the Archdiocesan schools in the nominated region.
- Enhance student learning outcomes and to foster the Catholic ethos across the regional cluster of schools.
- Establish and develop a productive working relationship with members of the schools in the nominated region and the wider Catholic Education Office community.

The successful candidate will ideally hold a leadership position in the education community and have a commitment to uphold the Catholic ethos.

A competitive remuneration and benefits package is available to the successful candidate.

Further information about this position and/or confidential enquiries can be made by contacting Dr Dan White, Director on 6210 8888.
